CBA Alumna to Receive Honorary Doctorate!

Congratulations to Ms. Jane Kay Nugent, '48, a CBA alumna and retired Vice President of Detroit Edison (now DTE Energy), who will receive an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from UDM at the 2013 Commencement ceremony. Ms. Nugent received a bachelor's degree in Personnel Management from the University of Detroit, an MA in Personnel Psychology from Wayne State University and an MBA from the University of Michigan. She was among the first to be granted a Certified Administrative Manager designation by the Administrative Management Society, and also earned the designation of Accredited Executive in Personnel. She participated in the nation's first management development program for women at Cornell University, and subsequently presented a similar program in major cities across the country. She also taught at Cornell, the University of Detroit, the University of Michigan, and Wayne State University, and authored numerous articles for business and human resources publications. She retired from Detroit Edison as Vice President of Administration, previously having held the position of Vice President of Human Resources. She was a member of the Senior Management Committee and Management Council at retirement.

CBA Student Selected Valedictorian for 2013

Business major Kaitlin Avery, '13, shown below with Dean Eisenhauer (L) and Provost Zarkowski (R), has been selected as the UDM Valedictorian for 2013. Ms. Avery has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors throughout her academic career, including the Rev. Gerald Cavanagh, S.J. Scholarship for service-learning. Congratulations Kaitlin!

New Business Scholarships!

The College is pleased to announce several new scholarships, funded by alumni donations. Beginning this year, the Gary T. MacLean Scholarship will be awarded annually to an Accounting student. Gary T. MacLean, '65, graduated from our accounting program before earning a law degree. His law firm specializes in taxation, corporate structuring, and succession and estate planning. The Thomas F. Russell Scholarship for a business major has been endowed with a $100,000 bequest by the late Thomas F. Russell, '48, former President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of Federal Mogul and a member of the CBA Hall of Honor. The Joseph and Margaret Kloka Scholarship will alternate between business and engineering students. In addition, the Rev. Gerald F. Cavanagh, S.J., Scholarship, funded by alumni donations and named in honor of Fr. Cavanagh, who serves as the Charles T. Fisher III Chair of Business Ethics, will be awarded for the first time this spring. The Cavanagh Scholarship recognizes students for outstanding contributions of service-learning.

Forensic Accounting Certificate

The CBA Certificate Program in Forensic Accounting has now been approved as a gainful employment program by the federal government. Students enrolling in the program are therefore eligible for federal financial aid.
